

North Carolina Council on Developmental Disabilities (NCCDD)

Stakeholders Survey 2008

Submission accepted January 1, 2008 through December 20, 2008

We want your opinion!

If you are a member of a self-advocacy organization, state advocacy organization, provider organization, Center for Independent Living, state agency, legislative - policymaking group, or similar group, agency or organization, the NCCDD would appreciate your participation.

The NCCDD engaged in a full range of activities, identified in our Five-Year State Plan, which promotes full lives in the community for people with developmental disabilities.

This Stakeholders Survey assists in determining systemic impact of those NCCDD funded or sponsored activities by exploring the effectiveness of our advocacy, capacity building and systemic change activities through:

1. outreach
2. training
3. technical assistance
4. supporting and educating communities
5. interagency collaboration and coordination
6. coordination with related councils, committees and programs
7. barrier elimination, systems design & redesign
8. coalition development and citizen participation
9. informing policymakers
10. demonstration of new approaches to services and support

Upon request, these survey materials are available in Braille, large print, and Spanish.

If you would like assistance filling out the survey form and/or would like to complete it over the telephone, please contact:
